We are pleased to welcome limited numbers of invited people who do not have access to the Zoom services to worship at the church this week.

If you are unsure about how to use your iPhone,
Computer or iPad, maybe you have a family member or friend who can assist you to join these services. It is so good to have this time together. As a bonus there is time for small group chats on Zoom
after the service.

- The monthly news will be emailed or posted this week.

We regret that the Echuca Moama Uniting Church activities have been closed until further notice due to the measures put in place by the Governments during the Covid 19 pandemic.

- Breakfasts
- Lunches
- OFAL
- UCAF
- Meetings
- Book stall, Cake stall & Fundraising activities
- Concerts

STEPS is also closed.

Marketplace Crafts is now open! Spread the word.

Daily Bible Study Resource “With Love to the World” will be delivered to subscribers this week.

Please leave a message at the office if you are interested in subscribing. Annual cost is $20 with 4 issues each year.

We urge all to be mindful of their, and others, health and follow the Social Distancing guidelines and stay home.

Prayers of the People

During this next week, please pray for the following:

General: Pray for a careful resumption of business and activities related to families. We pray for selflessness and commonsense with faith and love to guide our actions at this time.

Churches: For the people and ministry of all churches in Echuca Moama

UCA North East Victoria Presbytery: For the people and the ministry in Kyabram, Cooma, Violet Town, Boho South, Strathbogie, The Presbytery Ministers;

Christian Ministries: For all churches as they seek alternate ways to receive God’s message, pray and be a congregation of faith .

The World: All countries seeking to find the way out of the effects of the pandemic, and the recovery.

The Indian Ocean islands: Comoros, Madagascar, Mauritius, Seychelles, Maldives
Burundi, Democratic Republic of Congo, Rwanda
